

MIQUEL GÓMEZ CORRAL

Master's Student and Junior Python-AI Developer, UPV

Throughout my studies I have learned about Optimization, Machine Learning, Artificial Intelligence, and Algorithms. Combined with my passion and the personal projects I have developed, I have acquired solid Computer Science skills, adapting easily to different programming languages and working environments.

At the same time, I have worked in several companies in the sector, putting my knowledge into practice and proving the value of my studies.

Currently, I am looking to join a company as a computer engineer focused on AI and Machine Learning.

EXPERIENCE
